[Mr. Tariatu Kunjitomman.]

Demarcation of Boundaries of Wet and Garden Lands.

287. MR. TARIATU KUNJITOMMAN (Muvattupuzha): (a) Are the Government aware that, in cases where the boundaries of wet or garden lands are not clear, the parties concerned get unavoidably involved in boundary disputes, riots and civil and criminal suits on account of their inability to fix such boundaries?

(b) Will the Government be pleased to take steps to remedy this evil by arranging for such lands being surveyed and demarcated, within a specified period, by the Assistant Tahsildars or some other agency, if applications are made and the necessary fees are deposited in the taluk cutcherry?

MR. R. KRISHNA PILLAI (Chief Secretary to Government): (a) Government have no information in regard to specific disputes.

(b) The question of the framing of rules for the survey of private lands on applications from land-holders is under the consideration of the Government.
